Learning is finding out
what you already know.
Doing is demonstrating that
you know it.
Teaching is reminding others
that they know just as well as you.
You are all learners,
doers, teachers.

IN MEMORY OF DONNA PORTER

Don't be dismayed at goodbyes.
A farewell is necessary before you can meet again.
And meeting
again, after moments or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.

Anne Walsh leaves lots of hugs to huggle ataul.

Beth Walsh leaves her space in the lav for Mary.

Edward Walsh leaves Mr. Beldon his basketball skills.

Micheal Walsh leaves his sister to anyone who is dumb enough to take her.

Christine Wassmouth leaves her curling iron to Dean Grondin.

Karen Wassmouth leaves her fire baton to anyone who can light it . . .

Gary Weeks leaves his demerits to anyone that wants them.

Annette Weir leaves Mr. Goslin to the poor underclassmen who have him for a teacher.

Maureen Whalen leaves on W-10

Richard Wheaton leaves J.C. to all the girls athletic coaches.

Robert White leaves a "Ped X-ing" sign.

Steven White leaves a bottle of Scope.

Sally Whiting leaves her mallet to future bell players.

Dana Whitney leaves his rat skins from Mr. Horkey's Bio. 2 class to anyone who wants them.

Karin Willard leaves to this school and all of the people in it the memory of Dennis Michael Patrick O'Brien, the most helpful, the best, and the most caring adult that we, the Class of "80", will ever know.

Douglas Williams leaves Lisa and Val to the Classes of '81 and '82 respectively.

Eric Yanchuk leaves the Freshmen his deepest sympathy for the next four years due to the crude administration.

Michael Yourell leaves his sister all his favorite teachers.

Tim Zak leaves the same halftime routine at football games to the band for the next ten years.
